

MISCELLANEOUS TEXT (FEC Form 99)

This Committee exercises its best efforts to report the complete identification of all contributors whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a single election cycle. First, this Committee makes a clear and conspicuous request for this information on its website donation platform, mail solicitations, and on the standardized solicitation materials distributed to prospective contributors in advance of events and in other communications from fundraising personnel to prospective contributors. This request indicates that this information is required under federal law. Several examples of these solicitations are included as part of this filing for the FEC's review. Additionally, these examples are available digitally at: <https://www.dropbox.com/s/s1jql4ock82jitt/FCRM%20RFAI%20Best%20Efforts%20Examples.pdf?dl=0>. Secondly, where a contributor has not provided that information or provided inadequate information, Committee policy is to communicate with all such contributors, within the required 30 day period, usually in whatever form the original solicitation occurred. This follow-up may take place by phone, email, or mail with a stamped return envelope. This request is not made in the form of a solicitation, and explains to the contributor that to comply with federal election law, the Committee is required to make its best efforts to obtain and report the name, address, name of employer and occupation of contributors whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 per election. Third, if the contributor responds and provides the requested missing information, this information is reported on the next regularly scheduled FEC Report or an appropriate amendment is filed to a prior report. At this time, the Committee has not received any additional information for the relevant report.
